Great sounds good.

Ona totally separate note, I finished an initial draft of what the arts overlay could look like! I have taken a printed copy home over the weekend to review and revise it myself one more time before we go over it together, but I'm really excited to show it to you!

Thanks again for your response.

I wasn't aware that I needed to meet you to voice my opinion as a local resident.

What I don't understand nor respect is the willingness to give in to these sentiments, and to abandon your own morals for said sentiments.
